Ireland's Greenhouse Gas Emissions 1990-2020*

ENERGY INDUSTRIES

↓ -7.9%

Less peat in electricity generation
-51% in 2020

Renewable share up to 42.1%.

RESIDENTIAL

1+9.0%

Residential emissions increased by 9.0% due to historic low oil prices and working from home.

AGRICULTURE

1.4 +1.4 1

Growth in Agriculture not impacted by COVID measures

Fertiliser use + 3.3%
Dairy cow numbers + 3.2%

EU Targets

Ireland exceeded its 2013-2020 cumulative Effort Sharing Limit by 12 million tonnes and the limit for 2020 by 6.7 million tonnes.

TRANSPORT

↓ -15.7%

COVID restrictions on car and public transport journeys led to a sharp drop in emissions.

Learn more on www.epa.ie/qhq.

www.epa.ie

© Environmental Protection Agency 2021

What can you do?

Your means of transport

Reduce your transport carbon footprint by making use of alternatives to the private car such as:

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

CYCLING

WALKING

Vour hom

Avoiding food waste is a climate action you can do every day. Check out www.stopfoodwaste.ie

Improve the energy efficiency of your dwelling by taking up SEAI grants and enjoy a more comfortable home with a smaller carbon footprint.

FOOD WASTE

ENERGY EFFICIENCY